Diana L (Diane) Edwards (Nana) that she was so lovingly called by the ones that loved her the most, was born June 30, 1959 in Chicago, IL to the late John Logan (J.L.) and Ernestine Payne Smithson. She graduated from Hendersonville High school in 1977 and at the age of 57 she went back to school and earned two Bachelor degrees, finishing at the top of her class. Diana worked as a childcare provider for more than 30 years. She was of the Baptist faith and a proud member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church in Millersville. One of her many proud moments was to witness all of her children saved and Baptized in the house of the Lord. Diana loved to cook, bake cakes, travel, and just spend time with her kids, and she also loved animals.

Diana is survived by her husband of 45 years, Dennis James Edwards; children, April (Chance) Nelson and Chris (Robin) Edwards; grandchildren, Dalton Edwards, Hailey Edwards and Analyn Nelson; and she was God Nana of Peyton Logan. She had three sisters and a loving Brother Wayne Smithson (Kelly) Smithson.
