“ To all visitors. If you get a chance, navigate this site to "photos & videos". There, open and view the video of Dianne fishing for and catching a shark in The Gulf of America. You will see Dianne at one of her beloved joys...fishing! You will get a chance to see her, and above all, hear her voice. What a precious soul. Geri & I created this soul, making this world a better place.

Dianne and I had been friends for over 15 years and I loved her deeply. Sadly, we had a falling out in November and never got the chance to reconcile. My heart is shattered! I know how much she loved you both. She loved spending time with her family and she loved the back and forth banter. Her and I had many, many laughs and memories. I'm gutted that our final conversation was in fact, final. I never could have guessed we wouldn't have the time to reconcile. I just found out about her passing yesterday and today is her birthday. I pray she is dancing with Jesus and Elvis. I'm so sorry for your loss. I shall miss her forever....

“ We felt such sadness and disbelief when we heard of Dianne's passing. It was much too soon for the world to lose such a beautiful light. We watched Di Di grow up along with her brother and sister as we watched our own children grow and develop. To us she and her family weren't just friends but rather were a part of our family. We spent so many fun times together and will always be so happy that we were fortunate and blessed to do so. Nothing is worse than losing a child and our hearts are broken for Bernie and Geri and the rest of the Bochenskis. May God bless and comfort you now and always. Love and hugs to you.

“ Let’s all get to know Dianne. Di began her life on Wednesday, 06-07-1972. The day was cool with rain, based on remnants of Hurricane Agnes. She was born by natural birth, healthy and alert. She bares the distinction of being the last baby born at Our Lady of Victory Hospital, Lackawanna, NY., delivered by Dr. Thomas Houston.

Dianne is the second child of Bernard L. Bochenski, Jr. & Geraldine L. Bochenski (nee Bellinger). Dianne came home to share her parents’ attention with her sister Patricia Rene, born 10 Feb 1971. Patty and Dianne were loved and raised in a loving home in Holland, NY.

Dianne’s mother (Geri) was a stay-at-home mother for both girls for their first few years. Di excelled and grew. She was healthy, active, and ever so inquisitive. Her interests and achievements were above normal. She was a happy baby and a happy girl.

On April 5th 1974, Dianne & Patty welcomed their new baby brother, Jason David, the 3rd child born to Bernie & Geri.

Shortly after Jason’s birth, at the end of May 1974, Dianne’s father Bernie graduated from college. During the 3rd week of May 1974, the family moved from Delevan, NY. With help from dear friends (John & Jan Busalachi), the family moved to and, started their next adventure in Dryden, NY. All three children attended Dryden Central High School, Dryden, NY.

Dianne completed her courses and graduated in June of 1990. Initially, she had plans to attend Tompkins-Cortland Community College, Dryden, NY with an interest in accounting or business management. However, at that specific moment in time, Dianne made the decision to marry a classmate, Deric Boileau. Di decided to support Deric while he attended and completed his education. She accepted a position as a bank teller at a local bank in Dryden, NY. Dianne was also active with the local Dryden school system, regarding the development of learning programs for her sons and other children. When her sons entered pre-school at “Happy Way” pre-school head start, Dianne accepted a position as a teacher’s aide. Over the years, several students reached out and thanked Dianne, keeping in touch with her. Her guidance influenced many children's lives. Dianne and Deric initially remained in Dryden, NY, residing on Livermore Rd.

It was during this time that Dianne bore her two sons, Zachary J. (born, 05 March 1996) and Jordan M. (born, 25 April 1998). Dianne proved to be an exceptional mother. She demonstrated resilience, ingenuity, guidance, nurturing and mentorship to her sons. Her dedication to their growth and development is nothing short of noteworthy.

Her supervision and direction guided both sons to excel and prosper along their own interests and education pathways. Zachary (ZJ) became active with a local Catholic church, Holy Cross, Dryden, NY and was selected to be an Alter boy.

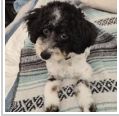

The family took the advantage of a career opportunity in the state of Tennessee. The family relocated to White House, TN in 2005. The family thrived and the boys honed their skills in various areas of interests. Dianne demonstrated selflessness and was laser focus, championing each of her sons' interests, education goals and achievements.

Zach (ZJ) expressed an interest in law. Dianne encouraged him to intern at a local law office in White House, TN. ZJ was deeply involved at his school as a member of the school's "student court" activities. His higher education initially focused on a career in jurisprudence.

Jordan honed his own skill sets, achieving excellence as an accomplished alto saxophone musician. He is also a self-taught percussionist with both the piano and organ. His practiced skills earned him the respect to be selected by his marching band members to be the band's field marshal and conductor.

Dianne decided to forego her own post high school education to devote her time to encourage and be directly involved in the full potential of her two sons. Dianne earned the respect and praise of family and friends alike. Dia Night, night my best friend. It always makes my day when I talk with you. I just wish I could help you somehow. I'm sure it will all come together for you. I hate that he is still in the way!!! I guess that's one way to put it.

Have a good restful night sleep. Call me tomorrow. I love you to infinity and beyond my Lucy Mom

TEXT from Papa to Dianne after her passing on 31 May 2025:

Hey baby,

We all love you so very much. We are so heartbroken and sad. We will always cherish our collective memories together. You had your challenges, but you also planned on future goals.

You were a wonderful daughter to us and mother to your boys.

Rest in peace now my precious daughter. We pray that you passed peacefully in your sleep. You will be on my mind, until I take my own last breath. We will hug and laugh again my beautiful baby.

Someday, at heaven's gate, we will share quick wit, and our playful banter.

You are loved by many, remembered by many more.

Get some rest now.... until we meet again. Then, we are going fishing!

*Love you,
Dad*
