“ We would like to express our sincere condolences for the loss of Donald. It was a privilege to have know such an honest, hardworking, Christian man. We have no doubt that God has a seat saved for him in heaven. He was a pillar of strength for the family. Even when times were tough, he was always there when help was needed. In this day and age it is hard to find someone who has so much character. Donald would always assess the situation and stand up for what was right. We know that he will be watching over you and will want you to stay strong and carry on. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all now and always. Love, Linda Faye and Paul
