“ Dear Dad,

I wasn't the greatest son in the world. And, I hope this does reach you some how up in heaven. I ALWAYS did and ALWAYS will love you. I am sorry I never got to say good-bye. To say I forgive you for the things you said during our last talk. But know I do love you and forgive you. You gave me life and for that I will always be thankful. And I will always look back on the fun times we had.

Love,
YOUR SON
Christopher R. James

P.S. Patricia. since you knew nothing about mine and dads relationship. I will forgive you for not wanting to include me. But, when it comes to kids. At least I went to see my dad twice a month for 7 years. Bruce left you and never looked back. So lets not point fingers at peoples kids. o.k.

“ Your 13yo grandson, Zachary Aaron JAMES, is getting so big! He is 5'10" tall, 215lbs and wears a size 12 in men's shoes. He is very athletic and an A honor roll student. He decided to start shooting school archery, NASP, 2 years ago and has qualified for the World Tournament both years as an archer. Yes, he remembers you! I am sorry that under the circumstances the 2 of you did not get to know each other better as he was growing up.

“ To the man I never called Donald, but Dad...

There were good times and there were bad times. I try to cherish the good times and hide away the bad, but sometimes other's actions make the bad times hard to hide away!

Our last 2 conversations set the tone as to why I was left out of your obituary, unfortunately it was the last that your sister heard and decide to leave me out as your son. It's amazing that in a time of mourning someone could stoop so low as to say you got on their nerves. Stoop so low as to ask that your own flesh and blood be locked out and left out of your obituary!

Without you, DAD, there would be no BRENT HOWARD JAMES! A man that is charitable, loving, caring and DID forgive the hurtful words that cut me so deeply I cried for not days, but months and years to follow!

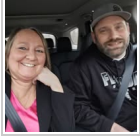

I wanted to be there to say goodbye, had plans to be there to say goodbye, but as to not stir drama within the walls of Austin and Bell... I stayed away. I will visit soon so we can have the talk that I tried on many occasions to have.

Love your eldest son, who is not without sin himself,

BRENT HOWARD JAMES

PS - Karma finds her way to those who need it most... especially the greedy spiteful individuals who act without knowing FACTS!

“ Donald was the best brother anyone could have , I already miss him and will continue to do so. As he lived with me for the last 7 yrs the house is quiet without him. Sure he could get on my nerves but none the less I loved him greatly. He is definitely in a much better place without pain.
