

Donald Leon Spink

December 30, 1957 - October 5, 2014

Donald "Donny" Leon Spink, age 56, of White House, Tennessee, went to be with his Lord on October 5, 2014, after a long illness. He will be remembered as a devoted husband, loving father and son.

He was born in Lakehurst, New Jersey, on December 30, 1957. He grew up in the Lobutchka Community in Central Mississippi and graduated from high school in Louisville, Mississippi in 1975. He then moved to Texas and worked there with Albertsons Grocery Stores for 17 years working his way from stocker to store manager. Since 1995 he had worked in the paintless dent repair industry. He and his family moved to White House, Tennessee in 1998. Donny was also an avid old car hobbyist and enjoyed attending car shows and swap meets with his brother and step-father and also buying, fixing and selling many cars over the years.

Donny is survived by his wife, Rhonda Howes Spink; son, James Tyler Spink of Charleston, SC; daughter, Mary Kaitlin Spink of White House; mother, Mary (Fran) Miller-McNutt of White House; brother, Nick (Diane) Graham of Ethel, MS; uncle, Don (Louise) Miller of Flora, MS; and many other relatives and friends throughout Mississippi, Texas and Tennessee. He is preceded in death by his father, Donald E. Spink and his brother, Michael D. Spink.

A Celebration of his life will be held October 25, 2014 from 4-6pm at Austin Bell Funeral Home in White House, TN. A private burial will be held at Rural Hill Methodist Church Cemetery in McCool, MS at a future date.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that memorial contributions be made to The American Cancer Society through the local Relay for Life.

Austin & Bell Funeral Home in White House is in charge of these arrangements.
