“ Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Donna's family. She was such a sweet person and being a teacher, contributed so much to our youth. My earliest memory goes back to 1957. I spent the summer with Mrs. Ensor next door. Her husband had died and she did not want to stay by herself. Visited a lot next door with the Holmans. I know Donna will missed so much by her family and friends as well as her church friends. She is in God's hands now and at peace. May God hold you in the palm of His hand. Donna Leding Plumlee
