“ Glen and family, I am blessed to have known Donna and call her my friend. We met at church but became friends while studying the Bible at Mrs. Harper's house with Glen leading. Those 7 years were some of the best of my life. I still consider Glen to be the best of the best teacher.

I did not know until this past Sunday of Donna's terminal illness. My intentions were to write her a note and let her know how much I respected her and appreciated her friendship and love. Due to having my sister's memorial service on this past Sunday and two doctor's appointments this week which wore me out, that card never got sent.

I am praying for all of you to feel the peace that passes all understanding. God bless you.

“ *Dear Glen, Connie, Jody, and Lisa: You have my deepest sympathy in the passing of your beloved wife and mother. Our paths did not cross often in our lives' earthly journey but I have happy memories of the times we shared. Donna was truly one of the sweetest and most beautiful women I have known, the epitome of a true "Southern belle." May your hearts be comforted in this time of your sorrow. God bless you.
