“ Doris and John are some of my truest special friends. I haven't seen them in years. The first time i remember meeting them was at church camp when i was around 10 years old. Love to hear them sing. I know that Doris is rejoicing in heaven. Peace be with John, Julie, and Darin. Cynthia (Cindy Gower) Hunter

“ It is hard to put into words all the good memories we have with you and Doris. It was a great friendship from Day 1. The Mission Walk in Nashville, our many worship services plus the visits in our homes talking about the Lord and His goodness. Thank God for the privilege of knowing you both. Doris has gone to be with Jesus and has heard the words we all strive for - "Well done my good and faithful servant."

“ Doris was a blessing to all she came in contact with. I hold her in my heart as one of the most beautiful, classy, generous ladies who loved our Lord dearly. Know her family will miss her until they meet again. She carries that beautiful smile into Heaven to greet our Lord. We love you Doris.

“ What a beautiful lady not only on the outside but so much beauty on the inside. We have shared so many memories. We have laughed together and cried together so many times. She was always there with a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on when it was needed. My heart breaks with you all but thankful that she is now free from this terrible disease and rejoicing with our Lord. I love you all, Joyce
