“ *Dear Kim and family,
My thoughts and sympathies are with all of you at this difficult time. May all of you have many fond memories of your mother. Kim, I compliment you for your dedication to caring for and taking care of your mother in her lasts months. I know you've spent many hours with her and doing for her. You'll always have the knowledge that you were there for her.
My best wishes to all of you. Just know she is in peace now and no longer suffering. I know losing her is hard, but be grateful for the many years you had with her.
Sincerely,
Ron Turner Springfield, Illinois
