“ Although you were not my Granny by blood you were my Granny by love. You were ways there just across the street. Too many years have passed and I hate that I missed them with you. There is peace in my heart that you are in the loving hands of God. Rest easy Granny. I love you.

“ Grandma You are the reason I changed the way I talk. We were down for Christmas one year and I ask you for a Pop. Boy was that a mistake! You pop me right in the mouth! Said we call it coke down here. So I got my "coke" and never said pop around you again and change the way I talked from there on out. I love you sorry we didn't get to spend more time than we did. Give granddaddy an big hug for me!
