“ She was a wonderful step mother after her stroke, it seemed as if she gave up on life but she would have her good and bad days. She had a major stoke and was paralyzed on one side so she had to be take to the bathroom, bathed and more. She always apologized she felt she was a burden, but she never was. I wish I got to say good bye. I did tell her I loved her before she passed, from another major stoke. I will never forget her giving nature and how wonderful wife she was to my father, he's very sad and Im trying to console him best I can. He didn't have life insurance so my younger nieve se up a website where you can donate, or send the money straight to this funeral home. Any amount can help. Thank you for all those who had kind words and keep use in their prayers. She was one in a million. I love you mom.
