“Velma, Vernon, Russell, & all the other family members-my heart hurts for you tonight. Your Mama, my Aunt Doye Edith, was an amazing lady! My memories include spending the night at her house when we came to Kentucky every summer, eating green beans as much as I wanted, feeling so loved by her and Uncle James. I love each of you sooo much-in my heart I will be there with you, giving you lots of hugs. Jesus loves you and lots of others do too.

“Our hearts go out to the family and encourage each one to lean on the everlasting arms of the GREAT COMFORTER in this time of sorrow. Aunt Doye Edith was my Aunt on this earth for over seventy two years and she always treated me as if I was one of her own children. She will be missed greatly on my future trips back to the state of my birth, but knowing that she is no longer suffering and bound by this earthly body and its aches and pains will ease the sorry of her absence. Prayers are being sent for each of you. Trust in JESUS.
