“ Dwayne was a great neighbor and friend. He would always stop and chat if he saw me in the driveway or outside. I still remember years ago he came up and helped me change a water pump on my car. Then there was the time we were the(KCCUC) Kingsgate Curb Clean Up Crew. He will be missed ! Prayers for the family

“ Dwayne and I were in the East Tennessee Veterans Honor Guard together. I truly enjoyed our time together. Dwayne was a very humorous addition to our Guard. I do have one recollection. Dwayne, I just wanted to tell you that you had me shaking when you handed me the bugle to play when it was just my first time with the Guard. I was new and didn't even have my uniform yet. You said, "Jack, your going to play the bugle." I thought you you were joking but we were short members that day and I was the "volunteer" for the bugle. I will miss you 'ol buddy. Smooth sailing. Dwayne was my best friend. We traveled and worked together for HUD from the 1970's. We went deep sea fishing from Destin FL. Condolences to Bettie, Dwayne's family, and friends. Jerry & Vivian Osbourn
