“ I was sorry to hear of Eddie's passing. I was hoping to see him in a few days. His Dad and mine share cropped on the same large farm together. We lived just across the creek and would play together in the early to mid fifty's. He came by to see me one time after he had moved to Florida just to get reacquainted. It's sad but we will have to wait a little longer and meet in Heaven.

“ Kim and BrittanyMy memory of Eddie will always be his very kind heart, his true love for you, and that devilish twinkle in his eye that always set me up to banter with him and it seems that he always came out ahead! You have been a wonderful family unit and your "reason" has changed but I know you will always make him proud, while walking with Jesus by your side. Give and it shall be given unto you...Kim, you are an example of an ultimate giver...all the love you poured into Eddie got him through the hardest part of his life here. All the people you have spent time doing for are all here wanting to give back to you...please let us. You are loved and Eddie will always be a part of you. Yours in Christ, Rich & Sue Grable.

So sorry Kim. He loved you so much, I remember from day one! I am happy that you had those years together and your daughters. They will help you through this. Do you suppose Eddie is catching Harry up on things, Harry always liked Eddie and he loved you..... Take this virtual hug until I see you, sending love
