“ Bubby and family,
So sorry for your loss. We had an Alzheimer's diagnosis for several years with Daddy. It's a devastating situation losing a loved one a little at a time.
Prayers for you all,
John Paul Yates

“ I remember when Elaine married Hines because he and my brother graduated together. I always knew her Daddy and my father and he were friends. Elaine was tiny and petite and I of course loved playing with the babies. She was always kind to me. Cindy, you are in my thoughts. I will have to see what I feel like before I commit to coming to the funeral home though.

“ I well remember the first time that I ever met Elaine: I was barely 13, and one day in August, this very small, very cute blonde came to my house and waved her left hand and small diamond ring at me. She announced that she was married to my brother, I was much too inexperienced at the time to understand anything that was happening, but I can certainly say that when the babies started coming along, I was absolutely thrilled. She had beautiful babies !!!
