“What a grand lady! She “lived” with her circumstance whatever they were and was always “good as she could be” when you asked how she was. I had the privilege of knowing two of her sisters, Mrs. Mary Lucy and Mrs Lillian. They were all salt of the earth kind of people. They grew up at a time when the most important thing was God and Family and cooking. William said Mrs. Eleanor made the best mashed potatoes he had ever eaten....I asked her what she did different and she said “nothing”, it’s just potatoes, butter, salt and milk...I was talking with her niece about this very thing and she said that Opal Shearron said they (the sisters included) just stuck their finger in it. We will certainly miss her.

Our sympathies to Johnny, Anne, Jason and Susan and the rest of the family. She is one of the last of the great generation. Prayers to you all. God Bless

Cheryl and William
