Elizabeth Lee Robertson, age 94, of Gallatin, formerly of Goodlettsville, passed away the evening of November 12, 2022. Elizabeth was born January 15, 1928 in Nashville, TN to the late Barney Stockman and Bonnie Della Kelley Trevathan. Elizabeth was a humble, kind, and caring person. She worked hard, was loving and loyal to her husband Paul, and compassionate to all who were lucky enough to cross her path. Besides her family, her life's work was as a gifted teacher, achieving the title of assistant professor. Her last position was at Tennessee State University, where she taught until her retirement. Church was an important part of Elizabeth's life and she cherished the church friendships she made over the years. Elizabeth and Paul were first members of Grace Baptist Church, and for the last 40 plus years they were members of Springhill Baptist Church. Elizabeth will be missed by everyone she leaves behind.

She is survived by her husband of 71 years, David Paul Robertson, Sr: sons, David Paul Robertson, Jr (Angie), Trevis Lee Robertson (Dolores); daughter

Bonnie Beth Jenkins; grandchildren, Troy Lee Robertson, Shannon Elizabeth Robertson Myers (Danny), Eric Randall Robertson, Ashley Christine Robertson, Christopher Michael Jenkins, and Rachael Elizabeth Jenkins; 6 great-grandsons, Toby, Reef, Tate, Coen, Haven, and Bair; and a great-great-grandson, Jameson.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to St. Jude, in Elizabeth's memory. This was her favorite charity, and another way her all encompassing love can still be part of people's lives, especially young children in need.

“ I have so many reasons to say thank you - for the countless mornings you shared breakfast with me, all the times I would join you after school for your daily walks on Roberts Rd, your compassion, your empathy, your strength, giving me the super morbid "found a peanut" song, teaching me proper grammar before I could even speak, hiding birthday presents and making treasure maps to lead me to them, Sunday lunches every week for the first 21 years of my life, showing me the joy and wonder of seeing the leaves change in the fall, teaching me lessons long before they would ever apply to my actual life, showing up to my baseball and basketball games as well as the many plays I was in, and just for being there for me in many ways throughout my life. You were always so gentle, humble, kind, and modest. I was blessed to have you in my life for the last 38 years and will cherish any and every memory that crosses my mind. I love you Grandmomma.
