“ I think the fondest memory I have of Enoch was when our dog had puppies and Enoch had his eye on one we called Panda because she was marked like a Panda in the face. A friend of mine came to the house to pick one for himself and Enoch was watching out his window to see if he could see if it was Panda. The friend didn't take Panda, but Enoch didn't know that. Christine came and got her for Enoch and gave her to him for his birthday. He was one happy man.
