“ Esther, I know that I'm no longer family but you were my mother every since I was 13 years old and for 28 years you, took me into your home and you taught me many, many things. We had our good times as well as many bad times but when it all boiled to it, you were still my mother. I feel so blessed to know you and these past 5 years you excepted back home again as if I have never been gone. I know I never got to tell you that I appreciated you for everything you have every done for me through out so many memorable years. I'm also blessed that I was able to be there with you to help your through the remainder of your time left here on the earth. I just want to say thank you for everything, I love you sweet lady and I truly hope to see you again some day. You will forever be in my thoughts and until we meet again, Tell my Mom, Dad, Sister, and Grandmother, I said hello and I love you all. You always be loved and never forgotten. Love always, Rhoda Marie Russell / McCarter / Fuller
