“ One of my dearest Aunts. I Loved this Lady. She was always there for you. She has made more of her favorite chess pies than would probably fit in a football stadium☐☐ They were one of a kind delicious. I tried dozens of times to replicate the same recipe, but NO, it never tasted like Aunt Lorelles. We will surely miss her. She was a Christian woman and loved her Dalewood Baptist Church friends and family. Thank you Jesus for bringing her home. We know she will never, ever, have any more pain, tears, or heartache😭. She is now with my Daddy, her son, her brother, sister, her loving parents, husband, and so many more that will be glad to see her. What a glorious homecoming awaits her. I will see you again someday Aunt Lorelle..... until then❤️❤️☐ Your Niece, Deborah Hughes Dyer
