“Mrs. Faye was one of my "earthly heroes." When I was a young mother, she taught me a lot of things, not by her words, but by her actions. She was truly an example of a fine christian lady. While she was a quiet person, her actions were loud and clear. Fortunately, years ago I did let her know these things and her humility was even louder and meant so much to me. What an influence she had on my life! If there were more people like her, this world would be a much better place.
