“ I just found out last night. I had no idea. I wish I could have been there. My prayers and thoughts are with the whole Arterburn clan, I love all of you guys, and with her babies ( who ain't really babies anymore.... How time just scoots on by and gets away). I will pray for peace to come to your hearts and minds. Hang tight to one another. Felicia was and had a brilliant soul that will shine on. It will radiate in beams of sunshine and quietly flutter by on the wings of a butterfly ..... You'll see. You will think of her, and there her spirit will be right beside you .... You will feel it and you will know. You will feel that warmth shining down and know that not only is she not hurting.... But she is in a place now where she can watch over everyone .... All at the same time. And with the big heart she had, I bet she likes that ..... Love you Arterburns- Shelby Allen
