

Fred Schott, III

September 7, 2015

Fred Warren Schott, III, age 63, of Knoxville, passed way on Monday, September 7, 2015, unexpectedly at his home.

He was an active member and key volunteer at Shoreline Church, doing what he loved most, serving with the Media Ministry. Fred served as a major in the U.S. Army National Guard. He was formerly a national sales representative for Panasonic and most recently worked with Farmer's Insurance. Fred loved working with his hands and enjoyed taking on projects around his house and others. Those who knew him well loved his famous "Fredisms," and classic dry sense of humor.

Fred is survived by his wife, Merna Fisher Schott; son, James Chadwick Schott; daughter, Cary Zeipekkis and husband, George; granddaughter, Bonnie; parents, Fred and Mary Schott; brother, Maynor Schott.

A celebration of Fred's life was held on Friday, September 11, 2015 at 7pm at Shoreline Church with Reverend Jason Hayes and Reverend Russell Irwin officiating. The family received friends on Friday prior to the service from 5-7pm at Shoreline Church.

In lieu of flowers memorials in Fred's name may be made to the Media Ministry of Shoreline Church, 9635 Westland Drive, Knoxville, TN 37922.

Online condolences may be made at www.rosemortuary.com.

This obituary courtesy of Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Springfield.

AUSTIN & BELL - 509 Walnut Street, Springfield, TN 37172
615-384-1000

Tribute Wall

“ Nancy Lewis lit a candle in memory of Fred Schott, III

Nancy Lewis - September 12, 2015 at 04:05 AM

DS

“ Denise Dorris & Pam Swearingen lit a candle in memory of Fred Schott, III

Denise Dorris & Pam Swearingen - September 11, 2015 at 10:54 PM

MG

Myra Gore Gregory lit a candle in memory of Fred Schott, III

Myra Gore Gregory - September 12, 2015 at 09:59 PM