“ I am thankful I had the opportunity to spend some time with Ms. Gail before she made her transition. I'm praying for the family, and I'm thankful I could be apart of what she poured a lot of her heart and soul into.

“ I was shocked to hear this news. I will always remember our days at the old Commerce Union Bank and the corvette she drove. She always had a smile on her face and the sweetest soul. I remember when she found out she was pregnant with Benjamin. I was pregnant with Bo at the same time. Thinking of you and Benjamin.

“ Gail was my BEST FRIEND from the day we met in 1983. We became family over the years and stayed very close. We always said you are half my heart. There aren't many people on this earth with Heart, Soul, Compassion, Smile, Gratitude, Giving or Love as Gail. Nobody will or can miss Gail more then Myself and my daughter Nichole, she was Momma Gail to Nichole. Whenever she needed help of any kind we were there for her. Gail was the most kind hearted, Beautiful Lady inside and out and will always be deeply missed. Nobody can ever take her place in my heart or our many memories in my head. Rest Peacefully My Dearest FRIEND...Cindy

Gail and I have been friends since before she got Emily. She was the most talented decorator. We antiques together before she opened her first shop I will forever think of the good times we enjoyed. Wilma Stephens
