“ Many memories through the years growing up, as Billy was a neighbor to David and a schoolmatefriend to both David and I. Life has taken us in different directions through the years, but we still considered him a good friend. He was a man of few words, but always a kind heart. A wonderful husband to Glenna, great fathergrandfather to his childrengandchildren, a kind and caring friend, and most importantly a Christian example for us all. Billy...may you rest in peace and reap the rewards of your Christian heart. Glenna and family...may your sweet memories and God's love give you comfort and peace during this time. Love and prayers, David & Marsha Sherrill
