

Glenn Robert Hollingsworth

March 1, 1929 - November 11, 2024

On Monday afternoon, November 11, 2024, Glenn Robert Hollingsworth, a native and proud lifelong resident of Robertson County, moved from his earthly home to one in heaven to be united with the God he sought, family, and numerous friends.

Born at his childhood home in Barren Plains on March 1, 1929, to Dottsie (Dunn) and James “Pete” Hollingsworth, he was the third of four children where a love of family was instilled early and stayed with him all of his days. After graduating from Barren Plains High School, Glenn married Marjorie Orman Hollingsworth in November 1948, beginning a 61-year journey together. During those six decades, they raised two sons, built fuel and farming businesses, relished their grandchildren and great grandchildren, traveled, and left a legacy of love and devotion to the end of both of their lives. In the later years of Glenn’s life, many of his happiest times were simple days spent fishing, at family dinners, in his gardens, visiting with friends, watching ball games, serving in various ministries at Springfield Baptist Church, and making thousands of chocolate turtles each holiday season to give away. He led with love and the fun always followed.

In addition to his wife and parents, he looked forward to being reunited with his son Don Hollingsworth, and siblings, Jimmy Hollingsworth, Ralph Hollingsworth, and Christine (Hollingsworth) Dozier.

He will be missed by son and daughter-in-law Ronnie and Cheri Hollingsworth and daughter-in-law, Glenda Hollingsworth. Grandchildren Jennifer (Ben) Johnston, Rachel (Clayton) Richardson, Suzann Hollingsworth, Corbitt (Audrey) Hollingsworth, and Mary Glenn (Marc) Fatton. Great grandchildren Mallory Johnston, Morgan-Blair Richardson, Avery Johnston, Amelia Richardson, Emmy Cate Hollingsworth, Spencer Fatton, and Ellie Hollingsworth. As well as numerous nieces and nephews.

The family welcomes those who also want to remember and celebrate his life with visitation on Friday, November 15th from 3-7 pm, and again Saturday, November 16th from 12pm until the funeral at 2 pm in the chapel at Austin and Bell Funeral Home. Burial will follow in the Elmwood Cemetery with Jerry Dozier, Marc Fatton, Corbitt Hollingsworth, Mark Hollingsworth, Mike Hollingsworth, Jack Hollingsworth, Ben Johnston, and Clayton Richardson serving as pallbearers.

If so desired, memorial contributions can be made to The Gideons, www.gideons.org, Open Door Pregnancy Center, www.opendoorprc.org, or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, www.stjude.org

“ Mr Glenn rode with me each Monday for about 2 1/2 years while driving a courier route for Sudden Service Markets. I realized right off the bat that this was a Special Man. We talked about everything while driving that route each Monday. And yes we did make a stop several time at Bass Pro Shop on our way back to Headquarters. We enjoyed Bolonga sandwiches, Fried Chicken Livers but most of all, the Friendship and bond we created. We discussed Fishing, Family but most of all our Faith and what we had to do to spend eternity one day with our Lord and Savior. We laughed together, cried together and I cannot explain the impact he made on my Life. I Thank God that he brought this Special Man into my Life for I am a Better person today because of Mr Glenn. My Prayer would be that God will wrap his arms each of his Family and comfort them during this time. Terry Hayes, Ridgetop TN

“ I worked with Mr. Glenn for around 40 years. Always the gentleman, he was courteous each time we spoke and knew the blessings of his loving family. One could tell he was well respected by those who knew him. He was a rock star whenever I saw him at Hollingsworth Oil, and made it a point to reach out to the staff there. He clearly enjoyed his family, faith and fishing. My life has been better for having known this kind gentleman, and he will be greatly missed. Walter Goggin, Danville, Ky

“ I know Debbie Carpenter will miss Paw Paw! We had fun times at his house when Debbie got to host Bunco there! She always had wonderful things to say about him! He sure was a lot of fun and welcomed us all!

“ I had the honor of meeting Mr. Hollingsworth a couple of times. I am friends with his granddaughter and had the privilege to join them for a Christmas Eve church service and the family Dirty Santa Christmas game. Mr. Hollingsworth gave me the blanket he won, and I still have it to this day. He was a kind man, and I can tell he meant a great deal to his family. What a legacy.

“ I worked at Hollingsworth Oil for 34 years and always enjoy talking to Mr. Glenn when he came around. He always loved fishing and always had some side project in the works and sometimes needed a little help with one thing or another. I was always glad to help, he and Mrs. Marjorie were very nice people!
