“ I've thought about Spunk so many times. We worked together at Metro Water and Sewer years ago, late 70s-early 80s, played music with some friends, too. Being young and always having fun. We'll see you again. B.B. (Barry) Howell, Jr.

“ SFW in Portland is so sorry to hear of such a wonderful man passing. He was a joy to see daily here. He was so nice and pleasant to talk with. Always so happy and enjoying life. He was a very Godly man and we had many conversations about life. He will be greatly missed by all of us. Prayers for peace for his family, whom he loved and spoke of often. I am going to miss doing life with him. Renee'

“ Knowing Glenn was like having another brother. He brought joy to our family (as do all of you) and I am thankful that God brought your family into the Head family's lives. Stefanie, he's holding your baby boy tight until the time he is due to come to earth. Hugs and prayers for all of you! Love, Carolyn Head
