Mrs. Lyons was born on August 11, 1938 in Marquand, Missouri to the late John & Effie Gromer Beshar. Grace worked many different jobs and loved to care for others. She loved to travel and especially enjoyed seeing God's creation. Spring flowers brought her joy and she also loved the colors of Fall. Her love of music started as a small child and extended to the end of her life. She especially loved southern gospel, bluegrass and classic country music. To say that she loved her family would be an understatement. If anyone was in need she would show up at the door with a smile and a giving heart. She attended Mt. Hermon Baptist Church of Clarksville as well as Central Baptist Church of Crossville. Her love for the Lord radiated from her soul even when her memory faded.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Jay Lyons; siblings, Dolly "Faye" Theise, Raymond Beshler, Melvin "PeeWee" Beshler; grandson, Austin J.W. Adams; granddaughter, Jessica D. Slezak; and nephew, Dusty Beshler.
