“ To all the Harmon family and Prouty family, there are no words. My heart goes out to all of you. I have such fond memories of my vacations in MN. Aunt Donna's house was the place to go to. I remember playing Monopoly, outside walking on stilts and because the woods behind the house I was always scared someone lived out there and was watching. Poor Greg was surrounded by girls but he didn't care. As we all grew up, we went our own ways but every time I went back to MN it was nice catching up. I am so happy that I was able to see Greg in Oct. he hadn't changed a bit, ok maybe a little cause he didn't have hair lol. but the same ole Greg making jokes. You will forever be in my memory. RIP Greg and give strength to the family. Love to all of you
