

Gwendolyn Pfeffer

June 17, 1944 - May 29, 2025

Gwendolyn Joy Pfeffer, age 80, of Ashland City, Tennessee, died Thursday, May 29, 2025, at her home.

Her wishes were to be cremated, and a private memorial service will be held.

Mrs. Pfeffer was born on June 17, 1944, in Nashville, Tennessee, to the late Hubert Wells and Wilhelmena Sears Day. She was a homemaker who dedicated her life to her family. She was her grandkids biggest cheerleader and never missed one of their events. Known as everyone's "Mutter", she was a constant source of joy. She was an avid sports fan and especially loved the Tennessee Vols. Mrs. Pfeffer was a devout evangelist and had been a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church since her childhood.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her sisters, Shirley Taylor and Mary "Babe" Knight; brother, Luther "Buzzy" Lutterll; and son, Greg Pfeffer.

She is survived by her husband, Dennis Pfeffer; sons, Brannon (Julie) Pfeffer and Hans (Marley) Pfeffer; honorary daughter, Shenia (Langdon) Altom; daughter-in-law, Tammy Pfeffer; grandchildren, Gunner Pfeffer, McKenna Marcum, Torrin Pfeffer, Ansley Pfeffer, Caison Pfeffer, Hagan Pfeffer, Lindsey Jacoway, Natalie Pfeffer, Hunter Alsup, Mikayla Yates, Jay Rowe, Dustin Kindred, Alexandria Rowe and kids; and great-grandchildren, J.B. Jacoway, Resse Farrar, Aiden Yates, Sadie June Yates, and Paislee Yates.
