“ I worked with Gwen for around 8 years and her sweet personality and funny sayings were always a bright spot. Her family was always so important to her, she talked about them all the time. And her love for Eric and the happiness he brought to her was endless. We will always remember our little Gwennie.

“ Gwen was one of the most gentle, kind and loving individuals I have ever known. I was blessed to have her as a part of my life for the past 12 years and so very thankful that we shared a love for each other that had its own special meaning. You will be missed my sweet friend. Your memory will be a cherished treasure in my heart until we meet again. Eric, she loved you so very much, you brought so much joy and love to her and I'm thankful you two had such a loving marriage. My heart breaks for you and the loss of this wonderful woman.

Dearest Gwen my heart is broke of your sudden passing. You was a childhood friend, classmate, piano buddy and the list goes on. Even though I haven't seen you in years, the friendship is still very deep. You played the piano at Mike and my wedding, and we will celebrate 47 years together on Monday. RIP sweet Gwen. ~Beverly Kline
