“ I will always remember my Buddy Harold's big smile every time I would see him. He was always happy when I would see him at one of the Brotherhood Big Eatins when another Buddy Jessy would bring him. Everybody knew and loved Horld. Horlad loved to EAT as much if not more than anyone I ever have known, but I think he loved to talk and visit even more. I always loved getting to sit down and visit with him and an hour or two would be gone before you knew. Horld loved his Lord and we had many talks about our Lord and having a salvation and a body made new with no sickness or aches and pains. I dearly Loved Horld and look foreword to seeing him in heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Williams Chapel Baptist Church, Prayer Worriers. Fred Parkhurst Outreach Minister
