“Dad you will be missed and there will never be another like you. I doubt there will be a day that goes by that you won't cross my mind. I will sure miss those missed calls with a voicemail that always started this is your dad and sometimes ended with how you hate answering machines. You were a great father and always offered support. You always told me when I'm good I'm your son and when I'm bad I'm still your son. I think no matter what happened, if me or David needed you we could count on you. Ill never forget the times we had you and Betty were great.
