“ I have so many wonderful memories of Helen. J.W. used to say she had calluses on her elbows from sitting in her chair so much! It was a joke! Helen was always a hard worker, an excellent cook, a good housekeeper, a loving and giving lady. I've dreamed about her so many times. I have missed being with her. A great and lovely lady that I had the privilege to know and love. ~ Mary Price

JW and Helen have been apart of my life since the day I came home from the hospital . Helen has told me more than one time how she was taking leaves on Feb 7 and as my parents brought me home they stopped and she got her first look at me. All the times mom sent me to borrow eggs or sugar. Not to mention us riding bicycles together, getting to pick up the eggs! At nite my parents , Helen an J sitting in our front yard at nite just talking, they have been a major part of my life. Not to mention getting to play with you as a child was always a highlight. Dog town will never be the same 😞 Sheila Graves Sartin
