“ Every week when she came in to get her hair done I would come into work and she would ask for photos of my baby’s ultrasounds and check in with all my baby plans for him. Earlier, when I first started working there, she generously brought me a blanket to use for my clients and tried to send me all the business she could. She was always kind, giving, and so vivacious. I miss her dearly!

“ Irene and I shared many memories of good times together. We often went out to lunch and shopping together. I visited her in March at Vantage point . That was the last time before Covid caused so many restrictions. she was a wonderful lady and a dear friend. she attended the singles group with me and others at our Church Valentines' fund raiser. Our very first time was the best. We even had the servers sing to us. so glad she is with Jesus now and I will see her again.
