

Jagger Cook

July 3, 1983 - January 6, 2015

Jagger Cook, age 31 of Whites Creek, TN died on January 6, 2015 at Center Point Medical Center in Independence, Missouri the result of a tragic car accident. A Celebration of his life was held on Saturday, January 10, 2015 at 2PM in the Chapel of Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Greenbrier with Leroy Shumake officiating. Visitation was held on Friday from 4:00 - 8:00PM and 12:00 - 2PM Saturday prior to the service at the funeral home.

Jagger was born on July 3, 1983 in Nashville, TN to Richard Cook and Heather Thompson. He was a talented musician who studied music at the Blair School of Music. He served his country in the US Marine Corps and played in the Marine Corps band. After his time with the Marines, he worked for Amazon in packing. Jagger loved the Marines, being outdoors, snow skiing, music & playing the tuba, magic cards, and 'chilling out' by a fire with his friends. His tattoo read: "Love, Life, Music, Soul" which was the motto of his life. He never wanted more than he needed and was a tender-hearted young man with a tremendous love for Life!

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Redge Thompson. He is survived by his grandparents, Stella & Marion Cook & Betty Thompson; father, Richard Marion Cook (Theresa Parsley), Goodlettsville; mother, Heather Thompson(David Buchanan), Richmond, California; sister, Sigourney (Justin) Younglove of Rock Island, TN; step-brother, Brandon Parsley of Goodlettsville; loved niece & nephew, Journey & Tripp Younglove.. Serving as pallbearers were Justin Younglove, Chase Martin, Collin Cook, Gavin Cook, Landon Cook, Geoffrey Updike, and Brandon Parsley. AUSTIN & BELL GREENBRIER were in charge of arrangements. Phone. (615)643-4000.
