that wreck had 2 older brothers. The oldest brother already had 5 children. His wife and children agreed to take the 2 year old. I'm her. I lost that man that I grew to know and love as my daddy today. I can't say enough about him. He was the man who gave me a family, as well as his love and acceptance. He always told me how much I reminded him of his sister, and as long as he had me around, he had a piece of her. I don't know if he truly ever knew how much I love him or how grateful I am for the life he made sure I had. I hope he did. Long post for FB, but there's so much I want to say about him. In my eyes he hung the moon and stars. I will miss him until I see him again. Aunt Kathleen has written for each photo written and
