“ James (Jim) was a very special cousin. I had fun playing with him when my parents and I visited from Memphis. It was especially fun to attend Ford reunions at his parents’ house. I know that, as he got older, he and his brother helped his parents get ready for those big affairs. In recent years, he and Frances and Charles and I planned several family reunions, and they were the ones who made sure that the building was opened and ready for the family to gather. We will miss all the kind, thoughtful things he did and our discussions of UT football
These fond memories will comfort us in the days ahead. With my love, Mary Ann
