“ Teenie, I was shocked to just read this news. Not getting out much, I don't know what is going on as I used to 12 years ago. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family. Your love brought much meaning and joy to James Harrison's life the years you have been married. The care you have given to him since he became disabled has been a testimony to this special love you two held as well as your faith and Christian beliefs in action. You have certainly inspired many of us to be better caregivers to our loved ones. This note is in place of my coming to what will be a crowded visitation as I do not function with my walker well in crowds due to my walking skills and vision. I know you will feel the love, prayers for peace and serenity that are lifted for you. In His Grace, Nancy
