“ Mr. Hutton was my next door neighbor. He and Mrs. Hutton were so kind to me when I first moved in, sharing amazing key lime pies and oranges with me. Every day, they would have lunch out in their gazebo on the swing and I visited with them regularly, learning about various plants as well as their travels. Each year, my girls loved to look at the nativity scene that Mr. Hutton religiously set up. He will be greatly missed.

“ Jim and Margie Hutton were wonderful neighbors. They lived across the street and loved to work in their yard. Margie passed a couple years ago, and now Jim has joined his beloved. Both will be greatly missed and may God comfort their children and grandchildren. With deepest sympathy, Barbara Jenkins, neighbor.
