“ I lived next door to the Lampley’s for more than 30 years. After Ms. Geraldine passed, he and I spent lots of time either sitting under his carport or in his kitchen, occasionally on my porch swing. Occasionally I’d look out my window and he’d be out on his tractor mowing his yard and then he’d make it over to my yard. He in his 80s - me in my 60s. Then shortly thereafter, my wife passed, and I moved, so our visiting times ended. I enjoyed our visits. I missed his visits.

I send my condolences to his children and the family.
