“ Long ago, I worked with Mark at Nasco. He was a tall, skinny kid when when he worked in shipping. And everyone liked him. I had a crush on him, before him & Kim ever married. We even dated for a while, later. He loved art, and was good at drawing. I still have a sweat shirt he painted for me, probably over 35yrs ago. He made some real good nachos 1 nite, when I was at his place. And I still make them his way. My heart is broken now. And I'll never forget him. I know he was close to his sister & parents. Your all in my prayers...Pro.3: 5-6

“ This news is still hard to believe! I grew up with Mark, played sports together, and explored life together. I will miss Mark and my heart and thoughts go out to all of Mark's family and his children. My condolences...Mark will be missed!

This photo was taken sometime in the early 90's on one of our many Red River canoeing/camping excursions. Mark was always a part of our river crew and our explorations and adventures - so many great memories!

Rest in peace my friend! I will see you on the other side...

“ Hate to hear this news—condolences to the family!!. I ran around with Mark in the subdivision but lost touch in High School because I worked so much. I remember he was kind, caring, and a good friend—we fished and goofed off a lot with the Mantlo boys next to him. He just out of the blue asked his dad to mount a bass for me, and Jerry did—I'm sure the smallest bass he ever mounted. Good memories! Another gone too soon, rest in peace Mark.

“ I was blessed to have Mark as a wonderful stepfather. I will cherish the lifelong memories we made as a family, and plan to share them with my brother often. God has taken him from Austin much too soon, but he will never be forgotten by either of us. May God comfort our mother, Brenda, Jerry, Kim and Family.

“ Mark and I shared so many memories. Most were fun filled and silly, and some were kinda sad. Being high school sweethearts, and then married for a few years, it's fair to say that there were more fun times than not. One memory, that I tend to laugh about to this day, is the time that I arrived at Jerry and Brenda's house after work one afternoon to find Jerry, Brenda, and Mark all dancing to a Michael Jackson song. That song was cranked up so loud that they didn't even hear me open the door. They were getting into the music that night!! Also, Brenda could sure make the best “yellow bird” drinks ever! We had some great times together. It's heartbreaking to think that Mark isn't on this earth any longer. He will be so missed. I hope that I'll see him again one day in paradise. Until then, we must honor Mark by having faith and hope for the coming days, and love to keep his memory alive. Jerry, Brenda, Kim, and the rest of Mark's family; I'll always love you all and I'm always here for you. I'm sending up prayers for peace to come into your soul, and for comfort in the coming days. I know your hearts are broken. May time help to heal some of those deep wounds. Rest in peace, Mark
