“ Jim was one of a kind ! My first encounter with Jim was when I began supporting his area he called me first thing in the morning introduced himself and told me I'm your new best friend! when I hung up the phone I just smiled and thought this guy's a card well he wasn't kidding when he said I'm your new best friend because he was truly one of the greats that I got to work with at Black Box. I never worried when I sent him out on a job, I never worried when he came back with information about a client and what they needed. Jim treated everyone he knew like he was their best friend. Even when I moved over to a new team within the company Jim always made a point to check in to see how things were going. I enjoyed hearing about his tomato plants, his best furry friend and his beloved family. I'm so sad that he is no longer on this earth, I'm sad for everyone who knew him, especially his family. Rest in peace my friend you may be gone but you will never be forgotten!

“ Jim was one of the people I always enjoyed working with. It didn't matter if a system was broken or it was just a question, Jim made sure it was an easy conversation and we shared a lot of laughs.

“ Jim was an amazing man. We talked regularly about jobs he was on, but more often than not our conversations would turn to personal topics. We talked a lot about his family and how he wanted to spend his time outside of work, enjoying time with them, and living life, which was not nearly enough with the work schedule he kept. We talked about his southern accent, which always soothed my soul as my family is from Kentucky. We would talk about all things Southern and our faith. Jim was a hard worker and Black Box was truly lucky to have him. He made everyone's days better by having worked along side him and by having him as a friend. When I left the company in February he was one of the few people outside of my team that I called personally to tell and while he was sad to see me go, he was very happy that I was following God's plans for my life, and he talked again about what was important to him, his family and time doing things he loved. My heart hurts for his family, for his friends and for his co-workers, as the void left by Jim's passing will never be filled. He was one of a kind and he made the world a better place. My thoughts and prayers go out to you all.
Blessings, Amie

“ I worked with Jim for many years at Black Box. He was my go-to tech and I always knew he would do an excellent job. The customers loved him as did his co-workers. Jim and I use to laugh about our count down to retirement. We had both been with Black Box for decades and were the same age. I am so sad that Jim will never get to enjoy his retirement. It is not fair he was taken to soon. My heart goes out to his family who I know he loved early. My prayers and thoughts are with you. May you rest in peace Jim.....you will be missed by so many. “ Jim's birthday popped up on my calendar today. I had no idea he passed away and when my annual birthday message to him was returned, I knew something was wrong. The last time we spoke was on this day 2022 and I had no idea he passed. I'm completely shocked. He always made me laugh. He is deeply missed. Melissa French Pinnacle
