“ Out of the many students that I have taught, Jan was one of the true artists. We became very good friends. She was an artist who felt and loved through her work. I cherish the paintings that she sent me, I cry when I think of her gentleness and wonderful spirit. She added so very much to this world. I will miss her. Theo

“ Jan was passionate about her patients. She was a natural teacher and loved to share what she knew. She was always ready to share. Her things, her thoughts, her knowledge, her problem solving skills and even her rocks! I still keep the beautiful polished globe she gave me years ago. I will treasure it always. I will miss my friend. I no longer get a response from her when I text. Sometimes months would go by, but I knew she would always respond when I sent a text. But we have this hope. I will see my friend again. One day. I will find her by the side of Jesus. Til then, Jan. Rest in peace. Love you. Dina

“ I remember the many times Jan led our class in warm-up and qigong exercises before our tai chi classes; she often talked about nature -- earth, sun and heaven energy. So this poem, by an unknown Native American author makes me think of her. Rest well my dear friend and thank you for the privilege of sharing part of your journey with me. I give you this one thought to keep - I am with you still - I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the sweet uplifting rush, of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not think of me as gone - I am with you still in each new dawn. You can see Jan's gentle and kind soul shining through in the photos I've posted. You will be so missed.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Jan passing. I studied Tai Chi with Jan and she taught me many secrets that help me to relax and clear my mind. She was a wonderful person who often made me laugh with her funny stories. She had a kind heart and a wonderful sense of humor. I will never forget helping her pack her river rocks from her house in Northern Virginia to the move to Tennessee. Whenever, I spot a rock polished smooth by flowing waters, I will think of Jan.

“ Jan was an extraordinary artist. She took delight in the smallest details of the natural world. And she painted them; animals, flowers, birds-- with joy. As the Navaho prayer says, Beauty before her, beauty behind her, beauty below her, beauty above her--she walks in beauty. Barbara Rembert

“ Dear John, I am so sorry. Please accept my condolences. I took tai chi classes with you, Jan , and Brian at South Run. I have fond memories of the both of you teaching. One of my clearest memories of Jan is that from her I learned to take small steps. Prior to her starting to lead class, I'd always followed you and Brian, and since you're big guys, you'd take big steps... And I copied you. I was often off balance, since I'm short. Then Jan started to teach and she's closer to my height, and she took short steps. She got me on the right track and better balanced in my moves in the form. Just yesterday I was recounting that story to Lisa McDonald. May Jesus give you His comfort and peace at this difficult time. Susan Herbert

“ I worked with Dr. Nogle at Mount Vernon Hospital PM&R dept back in the 90s. I assisted her in running her brain injury support group. I have thought of her through the years and I just happened to look her up. I am shocked and saddened to know she has passed on. My condolences go out to her family and loved ones. She was one of the smartest people I ever had the pleasure of knowing. She had a gift of taking complicated issues and explaining them quite simply. There were many times that I finally had an ah hah moment of learning only after her explanation. She had a quick with, sly smile, and just got it. I will miss her and wonderful help she provided so many people. May you be in joy and peace now Dr. N. Until you are with your loved ones again.
