“Janice was a wonderful kind, sweet Christian lady. I have known her since my sister started dating her brother and married him. Little mama always welcomed everyone and Janice, Faye, Betty, JW, Ray and Charlie were always there playing or listening to the music. I loved the whole family. I still remember going home to spend the night as a girl with Judy and her mom would get up and make the most wonderful breakfast before we went off to school. The last time I believe I saw Janice was at her church when I was visiting with my brother and sister. She was a beautiful blessing to those who knew her. To the family I am so sorry for your loss but she is having a wonderful time in heaven. Remember the good times and rejoice that she is watching you from above. So make her proud of you!

“My experience with Janice and her family came along time ago in Spanish Trails. Her, Larry, Michael and Troy were a part of my life as early as 11-12 years old. Janice is and always will be one of the most precious and patient people I've ever known. She was a God-fearing woman and I'm sure she is rejoicing in Heaven. I love that Binkley family like my own and I'm privileged to know them. God Bless you all.
