“ I will always remember you two cousins separated by a dusty driveway. I can still see the sunflowers that Granny planted and all the piggy back rides you were my best friend then and somehow you always have been.

I didn't mean for my picture to take up room in this tribute album. I was trying to make a profile picture where my initials are. I apologize for the misunderstanding and inconvenience. I pray, in time, you all will find peace and may the Lord watch over all who loved Jason. Please let them feel your comforting healing love in this tragic loss, dear God. You will all remain in my thoughts and prayers. Jason was one of a kind and will never be forgotten. God bless
