“ When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. We are overcome by silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why Jason left this earth so soon, or why he left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we will begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived. And that his life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, please let the memory of his life help comfort you tomorrow and in the days to come.
