“ Jeff and Jason both used to go fishing on my brother and parents small farm. Then later I was a near neighbor to them and their parents. Most importantly, Jason was a close and dear friend through out high school with my younger son Matthew Thornton. The last time I saw Jason was at Matthew's funeral in June 2018. He was such a great friend to Matthew and so polite and kind whenever I had opportunity to see him. His death is so very devastating news to me as I just found out tonight. I am saddened to know a bit about what his parents, brother, family and all his loved ones will endure through their grief. My heartfelt prayers are for you all. God give you strength and peace. Love, Shelia Escue-Thornton.

“ This news absolutely saddens me. Jason was that one person in life you meet that you will never forget. He had the kindest heart and loved his family so much. His face would light up any time he mentioned his nieces. They were loved so much. He loved his mom and dad more than they could ever know. I’m so glad I had the opportunity and got to know him so well. I will truly miss you. You will never be forgotten.

“Brenda and Jerry, Our prayers to the both of you and your family during this emotional time. We are heartbroken. I loved Jason like a son. I will never forget the talks I’ve had with him and the stories and laughs we shared each time he mowed my yard and being the handyman during my times I needed his help. He was very special to me and my daughter. God has gained an angel. I will never forget him.

Love and prayers to the both of you.
