“ Dear Debbie and Mr. Bobby ... so sorry to read of Miss Jean's death. I didn't realize she was 88 ... how wonderful you got to enjoy her so long. I have so many fond memories of her (especially when we were next door neighbors). You know I would be there if I lived closer.

Love,
Bill Jones

Thank you, Bill. She would have been 89 in September. She lived a long life, although the last few years were not so great. So many great memories of Blackpatch Dr. I miss those times and think of them often. I hope you, Stephanie, and your family are doing well.

Thank you, Mr. Morgan, for your condolences. Daddy doesn't use the internet, so I will make sure he sees this. Thanks, again. Debbie
