“ Jen and my 90 year old mom, Jen connected over their names. She was very open, loving, caring, and compassionate. There was a sweet kindness and spiritual side to her heart. It was evident in her interactions. We were stunned to find out she had passed away. She meant something to our family. She is sorely missed. God has an angel in His presence.

“ Sending my deepest condolences to the Larsson Family. I met Jen 10 years ago at Fortis Institute where she was enrolled in the Medical Assistant program. The love of being in the medical field was her passion because she loved her patients. Jen was a beautiful person inside & out. I pray you all remember the good times to help you get through your days!!!

“ I was absolutely heartbroken to hear this awful news. Jennifer was my next door neighbor and we shared many early morning porch coffees together. She knew how to make you laugh, that's for sure. I will miss my friend.
